

THE NEW JERSEY HERALD NEWS CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

This greeting is made with a full realization of the loneliness. Our hearts should be free from all hatred, enmity, jealousy and ill-will. Loving thoughts should occupy our minds.

The prevailing spirit throughout the Christmas celebration should be PEACE AND GOODWILL TOWARD MEN and GOOD TIDINGS OF GREAT JOY.

On this day, we should be free from the spirit of self.

Isaiah, further prophesied as follows: "Of the increase of His government and peace, there shall be no end...and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even forever."

As Christmas brings rejoicing for the many who may be enriched by the gratitude of Christ's love, we are obligated to those to whom the day brings little joy, such as "the poor and the neglected, the burdened, and the oppressed, the lonely and the solitary, those who are away from their homes, their hearts filled with loneliness, even to prisoners in their prisons."

Let us keep the Feast of Christmas with gladness and singleness of heart.

Let us do what we can to promote peace with all men.

Again, we extend A MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL.

Gloria Escapes Chair

"Linden Bill" Gets 25 To 30 Years In State Pen

Mrs. Gloria Williams, 23-year-old mother, who stated she shot 28-year-old Aaron Fletcher in a second-hand furniture store at 161 West Market street on August 6, was sentenced to 25 to 30 years in State Prison by Judge Brennan Monday for the fatal shooting of Mae Moore on September 15 following a plea of non-vult to second degree murder.

The failure of Gloria to come to trial after exhaustive data had been compiled to enter a plea of insanity was explained by Assistant Prosecutor Foran, who stated that she had at one time spent time in the criminal insane hospital at Trenton and no jury would send her to the chair.

The abrupt ending of both cases startled court spectators who expected to witness a lengthy battle over Gloria's insanity plea and Bill's plea of self-defense.

Hartgrove Flays "Lagging" Clergy

JERSEY CITY—Counselor Robert S. Hartgrove made a fervent plea to the ministers of Jersey City in behalf of a bigger and unselfish economic program for our group in a speech in the Jackson Avenue Hall Monday night.

He called upon the ministers to awaken and enter into a practical program with some person or group with a workable idea.

The noted attorney, in his first speech on the clergy during his long and useful civic career, commended the ministers on lauding the spiritual, but insisted that today's needs of the race are broadening and that the men in the pulpit can do much towards giving the race light on matters that vitally affect their everyday life.

Hartgrove's statement was

DAVID CANNON, JR.

Brilliant Student Is Buried

CRANFORD — Colleagues in the educational world and humble citizens of both races paid their last respects of sincerity feeling here Saturday as David W. Cannon, Jr., educational genius at 29, was laid at rest in the most impressive services ever held for a member of his race in New Jersey.

Hundreds crowded into every available recess of the staid First Baptist Church and across lined the sidewalks outside as Rev. Benjamin Allen officiated, assisted by the Reverend C. C. Scott, William D. Scott, C. H. Watkins, and G. W. Hamlette.

And thus David W. Cannon, Jr., the student, the poet, the educator, the churchman—enjoyed the love of every man, woman and child—entirely in fitting with the man he reached in his short and brilliant career.

As expressed by one of the speakers, Cannon, in 29 years covered more educational and his an overflow health meeting at St. John's Methodist Episcopal Church, on High street, corner 13th avenue, Sunday morning, Dr. Thomas E. Bell, in the course of a talk he was making on tuberculosis, created quite a sensation when he stated that it was his belief that racial discrimination is being and has been practiced at the Essex Mountain Sanatorium, a county supported institution, in the handling of Negro tuberculosis patients.

"The information I have is that there are Negro waiting lists and white waiting lists," said Dr. Bell.

Dr. Bell further pointed out abnormally high death rate among Negroes suffering from tuberculosis and stated that on account of the high prevalence of that dreadful disease among the colored people, that the allotment of a certain number of beds to Negroes in the hospital was unfair.

Dr. Bell further pointed out that due to this high percentage of tuberculosis sufferers among the colored people, that colored applicants for admission to the hospital were held on the "waiting list" much longer than the average white person suffering from the same disease.

Dr. Bell stated that although

Queen Morris Estate In Court

With an imposing array of lawyers seated at the counsel table, representing different parties in interest in the Orphans' Court of Essex County on Tuesday before Judge Walter D. Lett Under Fire Over Housing Post

After Abraham L. Bender, City Commissioner Byrne's unsuccessful candidate for secretary of the Newark Housing Authority, was rejected for secretary at a meeting of members of the authority last week, Bender issued a statement which, in part, charged Harold A. Lett, Michael Stavitsky and Charles P. Gillen, who constitute a majority of the 5-man body, with being "the instrument of a ruthless band of political highjackers."

The members, besides Mr. Lett, are as follows: Michael A. Stavitsky, chairman, appointed by Mayor Elihu Stephen; Charles P. Gillen, appointed by Commissioner Duffy; John J. Tooley, appointed by Commissioner Byrne, and John W. Lee, appointed by Commissioner Murphy.

Further, Mr. Bender said: "The most recent conduct of the majority members of Newark Housing Authority has served to confirm the suspicion of many persons generally interested in loyal housing and slum eradication, that the Messrs. Stavitsky, Gillen and Lett are merely front men, and that actual control is

Wife Of Suicide Tells Of War Toll

ELIABETH—Mrs. Sarah Bell, sitting in the well-furnished parlor at her home, 64 Grove street, was bitter Friday over the startling climax that had been reached in a pre-war romance as her husband, Frank W. Bell, a World War veteran, had been carried to his final resting place.

The war is the blame for Frank taking his own life," said the widow as she reminisced over the triple tragedy that had visited the Bell family within the week.

Bell, who was gassed during the 17 months he saw service in France, was found slumped in the bathroom Tuesday afternoon by his 18-year-old son, Julian, when he returned from school. Wet towels had been stuffed in the doors and windows of the bathroom and the gas jet of the heater was turned on.

The veteran had been discharged from a garage in Newark on Monday, when business troubles had been the cause of his dismissal. His wife, also, had lost her job with Flatfoot Fight Lost!

The Civil Service Commission refused the request of the New Jersey Urban League to relax their rule against flat feet. The commission maintained that other first-class cities of the country had the same restriction and were considered modern. Harold A. Lett was unaware of the Commission's decision when contacted Tuesday night, but the Herald-News learned from unimpeachable sources the request had been denied.

Dan Winge Reads Bible

CALDWELL—Daniel Winge, who is serving an 18-months' prison term here in the County Jail for the embezzlement of funds while employed at the Douglas-Harrison Apartments, has turned religious, according to prison reports.

Winge is leading the bi-weekly devotionals at the prison now. The former churchman reads the Bible at the devotionals and is described as a model prisoner.

No Examiner In 10 Years

TRENTON—There has been no appointment of an examiner in the State Department of Banking and Insurance for the past ten years. The last appointee was Horace Bryant, Jr., of the Colored Borough of Lawrence, N. J.

Mr. Bryant has examined many of the leading banking and insurance companies of the State and is rated one of the outstanding examiners in the department.

Dr. Harris Appointed

JERSEY CITY—Last Friday evening Dr. Walter Alexander, member of the State Board of Health, organized the Hudson City T. B. League for Colored Physicians at the home of Mrs. Madison and Lena Edwards.

Dr. Charles M. Harris was appointed to the staff by his extensive study and on the fact that he is a diploma American Board of Otolaryngology.

Cupid's Aim Unimportant

WASHINGTON—It used to be "if you love me, let me be loved." Today, throughout the nation marriage is less a matter of love and more a matter of practicality. Three States and the District of Columbia minimum age for one or both parties. Four States and the District of Columbia require a waiting period between the application and the granting of the marriage license. New York and New Jersey require a waiting period and a health certificate. These requirements are required in four States.

It's Alright To Shop Downtown, But To Eat —That's Different!

A subtle line of distinction in the S. S. Kresge Five and Ten Cent Store, 151 Market street, was revealed here last week on the eve of the big Christmas shopping rush when three young Newark socialites sought to eat in the luncheonette of the store. Mrs. Emma Miles, Miss Vesta Bridges and Miss Florence Ricks were the three who encountered difficulty when they sat in the "reserved" table section of the luncheonette last Tuesday for a short lunch.

According to Miss Bridges, the three seated themselves at a table for only a short while when a waitress came over and said: "You can't sit down." When asked the reason, the waitress told them: "I am sorry, they are orders."

Pressed further, Miss Bridges stated that the waitress said the orders were "from the manager." Miss Bridges told the waitress that they had been eating at the tables for some time in the past when they shopped in the store and that they would like to speak with the manager.

When the manager appeared he denied he had issued orders not to serve colored. The young women told him they were members of a civic organization and that attempts had been made to direct them to a counter, rather than to a counter, rather than to a counter, rather than to a counter.

PROSPECTUS

Progressive action is both the motive and objective of democracy. It is not "Truth," then the SPIRIT OF TRUTH will make men free and creative. They serve RACE or GROUP or SELF best who, like Roger Williams, would claim for themselves no right or privilege which is not granted to all men equally.

CHRISTMAS AND MUSIC

As parents and guardians are very careful about the books and movies our children read and see. Shall we not see to it that they have the chance to become acquainted with worthwhile MUSIC? The majority of our educators believe that training in music gives the child an aesthetic experience and mental coordination that cannot be gained from any other school subject.

The radio is invaluable as a builder of taste in music. By the turn of a dial we may take part in the NBO Music Appreciation Hour; hear the Metropolitan and other opera companies, leading vocal and instrumental artists; and listen entranced to the interpretation of the symphony by the matchless Toscanini. Our appreciation of good music grows as we become familiar with it.

Educators also tell us that music to be fully enjoyed requires our active participation in the making of it. To listen to some one else sing is enjoyable; but how much more thrilling to be able to entertain oneself and possibly others. To take part in group singing with skill and accuracy, no mean achievement and affords much pleasure.

Scattered here and there are families who take pride in pleasure in musical evenings at home. The children are encouraged to become acquainted with some musical instrument. Parents and children sing and play together.

If yours is not a musical home, the coming Christmas season gives you the opportunity to introduce a musical cur. For music and Christmas are inseparable.

May the Christmas spirit in your home find joyful expression in voice and instrument and may it lead you to a deeper realization of the joy and pleasure to be found in expression through music.

ON-CHRISTMAS

The happiest season of the year is at hand. We join countless others who celebrate the birthday of Jesus. It will be interesting to compare the Christmas story as told in the three Gospels of Matthew, Luke and John. Matthew and Luke together gave us a joyful and complete account of the birth of Jesus. Some of the acts of the Christmas may be paralleled in our lives today. The shepherds of Bethlehem presented the Holy Child with so many we give of our material wealth for the advancement of His cause.

Shepherds, after seeing the Baby, went out to tell all news to others throughout the country. Side by side of us who sing His praise help to extend His kingdom. The mother of Jesus, by her tender care, has set us a perfect example of love and devotion.

St. John told the story briefly in the following words: "The Word was made flesh and dwelt among us. The Word was wrapped in swaddling clothes is the Word made flesh."

The Son of Mary is at the same time Son of God and Himself. This is one of the fundamentals of our religion.

When we think of God's great love in sending His Son to earth, we ought to feel very humble. So as we celebrate Christmas, let us combine reverence with our joy, so that we commemorate the birth of Jesus.

PEACE ON EARTH,
GOOD WILL TO MEN

There are especially significant because of the war in Europe, the prevalence of race hatred, the persecution of minority groups.

Every person can fail to realize that the next war will include the whole world and might result in the annihilation of modern civilization. The rape of Ethiopia, Spanish War and the Japanese-Chinese war would present invincible arguments against war.

When we are entered into; but somehow we are not. They have and are proving of little value. It is time to check the spirit of selfishness which have taken possession of the world?

Something which will transform the HEARTS of men and women into the spirit of Jesus Christ which is the spirit of

Community Hospital Going Forward; Staff Honored

The staff of the Community Hospital has been honored twice by the Medical Society of the State of New Jersey.

On November 8th the president of the Staff received a letter in which the Staff members were invited to have a Scientific Exhibit at the next meeting of the State Society, which will be held in the Hotel Haddon Hall, Atlantic City, N. J., on June 6th, 7th and 8th, 1939.

Prior to this invitation the Essex County Hospital invited the Community Hospital to cooperate with the other hospitals of Newark in arranging a Clinical Session of the doctors of the State of New Jersey October 6th and 7th, 1938.

In addition the officials of the Academy of Medicine of Northern New Jersey have invited the Community Hospital to post its activities on the bulletin board in the Academy, along with the other hospitals of Newark, so that members of the profession might feel free to visit the Community Hospital and the staff, the other hospitals throughout Essex County.

These honors are noteworthy, because they represent full recognition of the staff of the Community Hospital.

We would like to remind the readers of this article that the State Medical Society is the judicial body of organized medicine in the State of New Jersey. It appoints its own members to the Board of Medical Examiners and Licensure. This board examines and licenses all practitioners who are permitted to practice in the State. It tries and revokes the license of those who violate the Medical Practice Act, which the State Society has in force.

In less than four years these honors have come to the Staff of this hospital, and four years hence the Community Hospital will have proved itself worthy of a high place in the field of hospital medicine and its importance to the community and its necessity to the Negro race.

Already the names of three members of the Staff of the Community Hospital are to be found in "Who's Who Among Physicians and Surgeons." These gentlemen are the two Chiefs of Surgery and the Chief of Medicine. No other Negro physician in the State of New Jersey is to be found in this "Who's Who." It was the Community Hospital that qualified these gentlemen for that much-coveted honor.

Moreover, the only Negro heart specialist in the State of New Jersey is a member of our Staff and has charge of all heart work in the hospital.

We now have a member of the Staff who is studying the eye at Columbia University in New York, and very soon will qualify as a specialist in eye diseases. Already this young physician is doing all the eye work at the hospital in a manner satisfactory to the entire staff.

unselfishness must conquer the world.

There is no better place to begin the fight for world peace than in our own homes and schools; for they are the training quarters for future citizenship. In the home children can be taught by example and precept the fine art of living with others.

Cooperation, consideration of the rights and opinions of others, with a willingness "to give in" for the good of the whole group should be the goal of our family life. Parents and children working together in harmony can lay the foundation for world peace.

Our laboratory man is to do special work at the City Hospital as soon as hours can be arranged. Any number of our young men are being made into capable surgeons and internists through the facilities of the Community Hospital.

A feature of the hospital activities which has grown, and still is growing increasing popularity, is the Thursday Morning Clinical Conferences, which are held from 11:30 to 12:00 noon. The Staff has had many outstanding physicians of Newark as guest lecturers to these conferences. Most of these conferences are informal and the men get a great deal out of them. We are glad to see the new men who are coming into the City of Newark lining up with the Community Hospital.

Of course, like any other movement, in this report we have the comforting and the discomfiting. We have given you the comforting. We think it is no more than fair that we should now give you some of the discomfiting features of our hospital.

First, it is too small, and we do not have the facilities to carry on the volume of work which has been coming our way in the past several months. The Staff members have been unable to find time to treat their private cases because of the great amount of work the hospital is doing for the City of Newark. We had hoped that we could increase the capacity of our hospital to at least a hundred beds in 1938, but continued depression made a campaign to raise funds for such a project unwise, but it is still a part of our plan and will be carried out as soon as the time appears propitious.

The second discomfiting feature is the fact that some of the established physicians of the Negro race have not seen the wisdom of supporting the community hospital, even though their own reputations are tied up with the hospital, in spite of themselves. If these men had done what the supporters of the hospital are doing, we would have been obliged to enlarge facilities long ago for this time. Every Negro physician in the State should feel that he had been honored because of the honor and prestige that have come to the Negro professional men through and by the work of the Community Hospital.

We are very grateful that we have found a sufficiently large number of men who have seen the movement in the light of constructive and necessary activity on the part of the Negro group, and have supported it because of these convictions. We have been aided by some of the leading white physicians of the community, as well as some of the business men that they will support the hospital as long as we show the proper interest in the movement, and they have lived up to their words.

We hope that those who read this article will try to feel what the Community Hospital is, as well as what it should be, and will be if the benefactors of it will only "come from their slumber and do their duty."

Board of Managers, Community Hospital,
John C. Nelson, President.

Sally's Chatterings

Looks as though we were going to be crowded for space since the holidays are upon us, so SALLY gives you a MERRY XMAS right now, and while poring over old poems, old papers and things, we came across this little poem which was written oh, some years ago, when our beloved mother lived and had her being, and so we pass it on to the kiddies and grown-ups alike:

I don't know how you folks will take it,
Or what you will say when I speak;
I don't know of just what to make it myself,
And for wisdom I seek.
I went last night to my teacher
For knowledge I went to beseech her;
She said Santa Claus was a fake,
I walked last night until midnight
To take old Santa a peek.
When just as I guess he was in sight,
Exhausted I fell asleep.
I've looked at his face in a picture,
His features were rosy and bright
With wrinkles and smiles and tears white,
Each time that I'd gone shopping with mother
At campers a Santa I'd meet.
My brain is awaking with wonder,
My eyes are aching with awe;
I'm wondering what in the thunder
Was it that I saw.
I went out last night asking,
When up at the top of the hill
A great luminous one was shining.
"Twas indeed, "SANTA CLAUS XMAS TILL"
I looked all around, made a noise,
But Santa was not anywhere;
I'd just take a peek at his toy
To see if they are really there.
I saw dolls and sleds and jolly Mr. drums
And things that bring joy when he comes;
His coming will bring on confusion
To grownups, to boys and to girls.
To tell you what I came, you to guess, little sister,
I'll tell you just what I saw;
'Twas my mother a check for an automobile.
The sight of it made me dizzy,
And when I then seemed to see,
Forgotten I ever saw, busy,
I closed my eyes in a wink.
I saw babies and toys and pictures
Of mother and father and you,
I saw a great tree, home all lighted,
A thousand lights, stars, lights, lights,
Of boys and girls who sat out,
I heard a voice, SANTA STOOD THERE.
A voice of good cheer all united,
A face with the brightest of eyes,
GEE, WEE! how they sparkled and twinkled,
And when I then seemed to see,
Forgotten I ever saw, busy,
I closed my eyes in a wink.
I saw babies and toys and pictures
Of mother and father and you,
I saw a great tree, home all lighted,
A thousand lights, stars, lights, lights,
Of boys and girls who sat out,
I heard a voice, SANTA STOOD THERE.

In The Younger Realm

Peeping Tom

By JOHN ISAACS

Why does Mary Mason sit in the chair on Wednesday nights alone for the past three weeks? Maybe her secret passion is laying low for a few weeks due to circumstances. . . . How is our warm weather friend Florida Kid Kid making out with that same old partner who wrote him a letter coping it down for his love? . . . At last the question has arisen whether Bob Bland is rushing Evelyn or she rushing him? . . . There are many ways of winning someone's heart but Dot Foster is using more than just strategy on Franklin Jackson, one of our new comrades. . . . At last that old love bug has caught up with Charles Davis. It seems that it bit Chas. and Hattie at the same time. Walking her home is some racket, huh Chas?

The chicks now-a-days are just like gulls of clothes to James Summerville. He has to wonder which one to go with or which suit to wear. . . . When Conrad Frando goes down to the High School in the afternoon to play basketball, why doesn't he leave his car home? Maybe he has to carry his one and only home. . . . What has happened to that glow-in-the-dark suit that was kindled by Sam Hughes and Winifred Scott? . . . Maybe it went out or maybe the boys are giving Sam too much competition. . . . More power to Jimmie Collins who tap dances at the Capitol Night Club in New York City. Here's hoping that you get that better job scheduled for the very near future.

I wonder why Evelyn Binlins is angry with Dot Foster. . . . Did Helen Tyson, Siszy Times, Virginia Patterson and Harry Hamilton have a good time Tuesday when they should have been in school?

Passaic Chatter Box

By DEAC COLEY

Specty Wilson, the demon of fun as acting is master as master of ceremonies at the state famed Democratic Hall. His Tuesday night jam session really packs them in. You can meet all the kiddies from the surrounding towns at the gathering for the ambitious lassies. Chester Page (rubber legs) Elfin (Porti Rici) Harris, Leona (song bird) Brown and Leonas (Bing Crosby) Conkili took the prizes at the last meeting. It is whispered that Bill (Colored Cresenta) Sappery will take over the management of the Hightower League basketball team. The boys are really going to sign a life time contract in the near future. I know a kitty who will be sad as last year's turkey when he reads this: Wilbur Marshall is organizing the young boys into a Hy-Y club. Here is hoping that he succeeds. . . . Passaic has become so popular that a club from New York is sponsoring a hop session at the Demo in the near future.

The Barn Dance of the Hightower League was such a success that they might give another one real soon. . . . A new gal came to town last week. James (Moe) McCormick realizing that his only chance with her was to act quick has laid down his city life on her and now she won't speak to noneone. . . . Miss Aclien (Patterson) Matthews is laid up with a bad cold. She has this corner's blessing for a speedy recovery. . . . Mr. Harry (Sweet Papa) Casen wish to announce that on Jan. 1st he will leave town for awhile.

Sweet Sixteen

By JIMMY EVETS

DEAR SANTA—WHY you all my stockings with these requests: Bring Margaret back to Willie Lewis. . . . Ray Alexander a new life at five as it seems as if Ray-Road has mixed him out. . . . Being the chick at Lincoln Restaurant her love. . . . Georgiana Martin has found herself an Indian friend. . . . Washout, Georgia, you don't get scared. . . . Bridget Brown is fondles the finger of that O'Connell's couple back at the Swamp. . . . Wonder who is Elsie Adams' love. . . . I see Lee Babs Brown has gone hay wire over Evelyn Wilson. Watch you stop Babs. Floyd Dickerson layout in the swamp. . . . Ray Babs and the cut out. The chicks are getting hip. Floyd, Wapp, the valet of Pancho's band is playing the chipper jam up. . . . I wonder if he knows Miss Lewis. I dug Walter Grogg walking a fine chick from Southside. . . . More power, ole man. I see Betty Hines and Hugo Murphy, former Southsiders, tipping through the girl's locker trying to crash a 5 cent Freshman jump. . . . Clarence and Annabelle Jackson are still trying to pull that brother and sister act. . . . Streety Jive, Robin Jackson must have found some fine fruit in the Oranges. . . . I don't dig him down this way anymore. Harold Ray thinks he can get even with Louise May by frattling

The other p. m. (recently) the "Cameo" (WARREN CLARK) tricked JUNIUS, MCCHIE over charming ALICE GANER. . . . has "Snitzy" (BOB SMITH) jumped back on the camel and MCCHIE deslashed back on "BIG JOHN" of Barclay stem. . . . In other live, it was a frigid issue.

James Jeffries, Battling Adonis Forsook Music Career For Ring

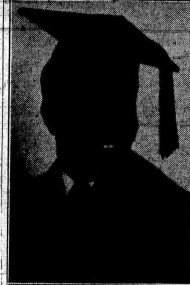

Middleweight Is Just Twenty Year Old

By "BUTTS" BROWN

The above picture of James J. Jeffries would not lead one to believe that they are probably gazing upon the face of a future boxing champion. The latest middleweight sensation will graduate from Art High School next month and will pursue a college career. Born in Albany, Georgia, 2 years ago he was brought to this City at the age of 5 and has resided here ever since. He started his fist career in 1933 when he won the 147-pound title at the Robert Trent playground. Then followed a sensational campaign among the amateurs in which he won 30 fights and lost two; of questionable decisions.

Jim turned professional in 1936 and has had 15 professional fights winning 14 and losing only one. His latest victory was over Felix DePaoli at Atlantic City, Friday night. His only loss was to "Jimmy" Payne at Rockland Palace in January. Payne refused to meet him in a return engagement.

Fighting to Jim is a means of financing his education, even though he admits he would like to annex a world's title. His favorite fighter is Gene Tunney because Tunney had so much intelligence, culture and was a master of the game. Jim is a great lover of books and admits that he took

John Will Train In Summit

John Henry Lewis who meets Joe Louis for the heavyweight title in New York on January 25 will train at Madam Bey's camp at Summit, N. J. "John Henry" has been doing some training out West and is in good shape for this bout. "He will probably open camp the first week in January.

Gene Tunney Is Idol of New Ring Prospect

Who playing at Hurt's School of Music but found he would rather play piano than piano keys. To read of a young man's personality and a million dollar prize, this fistie marvel has captivated the hearts of boxing fans wherever he has appeared.

"Just naturally like boxing and in going to stick to it until I battle my way to the top," he said quietly when probed by a Herald News reporter. "I have no girl and don't care about having a big time-boxing comes first with me. I believe that in another year, under proper coaching and handling I will be ready for any fighter in my class." These are wise words for Jim is not about a year away from reaching his peak. He is still growing and may be a heavy-weight in another year.

He has wisely not signed with any manager and is being handled by his brother-in-law, Mr. Quarterman under the motherly guidance of his sister, Jim Jeffries brings personality, education and above all a terrific sock in either hand to the middleweight division and is being sought by every promoter in the East, to say nothing of over zealous managers. A handsome lad with sparkling eyes, a perfect physique and a powerful punch he is destined to rival the meteoric rise of Joe Louis to the fistie zenith.

Joe Picks Pompton Lake Site

Joe Louis will return to his old training camp at Pompton Lakes to prepare for his battle with John Henry Lewis at Madison Square Garden, January 25. The Bomber has trained for all his important fights there and the place has been lucky for him so far. His only defeat, in his first fight with Max Schmeling, saw him training at Lakewood. Joe is expected to begin training immediately after the holiday season.

On Monday the HERALD-NEWS sent a woman member of its staff to test the charges. On the first attempt she seated herself at the table and was ignored. On her second attempt she seated herself at a table again and was served promptly.

J. R. Watkins, assistant manager, when interviewed on Monday, admitted they had to "serve all customers," but stated that they tried to encourage colored to use the counter service in preference to table service.

This was borne out by the action of the waitress and food manager. They did not encourage colored diners towards the table. Asked if this rule holds true even when the colored patron of the store sought to eat at tables, Watkins admitted that they, too, were "encouraged" to accept service at the counters, although there were no signs demanding that they accept.

He stated that bankers, office workers and other downtown workers ate in the luncheonette whether they shopped in the store or not.

The gist of the interview showed that the store had no objection to colored people buying goods, and no objection to them eating in the luncheonette—provided they ate at the counter. It is felt that for the "good of all" they should be discouraged from seeking table service.
